English - How to use this report

This report is designed with the French tax system in mind. It should not be used for declaring taxes in any other country, as regulations and guidelines can differ significantly. Please verify the information within this document yourself or with your accountant before acting on its contents. This report will indicate which figures you'll have to declare and where. For a more comprehensive overview of the declaration process, we suggest looking at our France Crypto Tax Guide.

2042 C

In form 2042 C you will have to declare your total profits or losses. These profits and losses are calculated using the information found in your 2086

3AN: 1366.83 EUR

3BN: 0.00 EUR

2086

To declare your cryptocurrencies you should go to your online space. Please check our complete guide to completing Form 2086 for more information.

It is only possible to report 100 transactions online. If you have more transactions you are allowed to group them by day. Alternatively you may want to reach out to the tax authority and ask if you can send a document in the format of the 2086 with more transactions than 100.
